RIGHT OF TEACHERS TO TRIAL ARGUED BY CLEMENSON

School Trustee Who Is Guardian of Liberty Breaks
Away From the Jake Loeb Majority Pounding Teachers' Federation.

The right of a public school teacher whose record is "excellent," "superior" or "good" to be notified and placed on trial before dismissal will be argued before the school board Wednesday by Dr. Peter C. Clemenson.

Because Clemenson is a Guardian of Liberty, one of the most active of that organization sitting as a member of the school board, and because Clemenson has nearly always voted with the Jake Loeb majority against the Teachers' Federation, the action of Clemenson in now turning on Jake Loeb is significant.

Clemenson stated to The Day Book today that whatever else he has done against members of Teachers' Federation, one thing he will never stand for is to throw teachers out of service without some kind of a hearing, and particularly when a teacher has markings from the superintendent of schools as "excellent," "superior" or "good," as was the case with 43
